Be right in the action on the Circle Line Spectator Boat at the 27th annual Great North River Tugboat Race & Competition!

Get onboard the Spectator Boat and see the whole event up-close. Cruise with the Parade of Boats, and even race alongside the tugs in the big race! Boarding begins at 10:15 am, departure is at 10:30am from pier 83 - so you'll be on the water before the parade!

There's more fun for the whole family after the race! Watch epic battles for supremacy in the nose-to-nose pushing and line-toss contests. You can test your mettle in the amateur line-toss competition, or try your luck at in the ever-popular spinach-eating contest. There's a division for kids too!

Thanks to Circle Line Sightseeing Cruises, the NYC Economic Development Corporation & Hudson River Park for their generous support of our event.
