

Canal to Coast: Reuniting the Waters is a program of the Waterfront Alliance made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature. This series of performances will take place aboard Lehigh Valley no. 79, a 104 year old Lehigh Valley Railroad barge moored in Red Hook, Brooklyn. In addition to performances, Canal to Coast will offer boat tours focused on Erie Basin in Red Hook, Brooklyn and its role in helping the Erie Canal make New York City a world capital. Tickets to performances will cost $2 (plus processing fee) each. Boat ride tickets will cost $5 each (plus processing fee).

Harbor Tours: Take to the water aboard a New York Water Taxi, with tour guides organized by the Working Harbor Committee, to learn about the origins of Brooklyn's Erie Basin as the Erie Canal's ultimate destination and its current role as a vital resource for maritime industry on this guided tour of Red Hook's Erie Basin and our working waterfront, departing from and returning to Pier 81.

Tickets will cost $5 each.
